

FAO/NAVAC Project (New Aquatic Food Value Chains) in Colombia and Guinea Bissau

Year:	09/25 – 07/26
Pays:	Colombia and Guinea Bissau
Client:	FAO (Funded by the EU)
Description:	Under the Fisheries and Aquaculture Division, the FAO is implementing the 'New Aquatic Food Value Chains' project (NAVAC), which aims to develop aquatic food value chains and improve existing ones, with a view to helping combat acute and chronic malnutrition, as well as finding (new) and innovative ways to improve the use of nutritious aquatic food products by vulnerable populations. · To help adapt the FISH4ACP methodological tools to NAVAC's objectives. · To coordinate the relevant contributions from all team members, analysing and reviewing each chapter to ensure compliance with the guidelines provided. · Carry out quality control of the data collection and report drafting process throughout the analysis of the CV, the modernisation strategy and the CV development plan. · Lead the drafting of the economic and resilience sections of the report, drawing on input from the VC focal point and other specialists, as appropriate. · Provide support to the relevant national partner institution and its staff. · Participate in the development of the update strategy and the development plan. · Co-facilitate multi-stakeholder platforms, launch validation and planning workshops, assisting with preparation, delivering presentations and moderating discussions with participants.